DECISION IN THE U S DISTRICT COURT

Forfeiture of Bail by A S Mercer

U S District Court District of Oregon United States vs A S Mercer et al Indictment for smuggling

This is an application by the defendant Mercer to the court to remit the penalty of $5 000 ... by ... and W H Gray and ... who became bound ... for his appearance ... in May last according to their undertaking for him

The application is made under section 98 of ... which provides as follows

In all cases of recognizance in criminal cases ... the court ... and ... it appears to the court that ... the parties and that a trial can notwithstanding be had in the cause and that public justice does not otherwise require the same penalty to be exacted or enforced

The circumstances out of which the forfeiture arose and attendant upon it are as follows

In May 1867 the defendant, Mercer having been committed by Commissioner Wilcox upon a charge of smuggling Messrs Anderson Gray and Robinson became bound as his bail in the sum of $5 000

On July 3 1867 Mercer and four others were indicted by the grand jury of this district for smuggling five one eighth casks of brandy and four barrels of wine and ten of whisky into this district from the foreign port of Victoria and that in November 1867 Mercer and his co defendants except one were arraigned and tried upon the charges in the indictment and the jury being unable to agree upon the guilt or innocence of the defendants were discharged without giving a verdict

In May 1868 the cause was again brought on for trial when Mercer made default and did not appear according to the obligation of the undertaking of his bail at the same time his three co defendants were put on trial and the jury being again unable to agree as before were discharged and a nolle prosequi entered as to such defendants

On May 13 and after the default of Mercer the United States commenced an action against Mercer s bail to recover the penalty mentioned in their undertaking

In July following judgment was given for the plaintiffs in the action for want of answer for the sum of $5 000 and costs and expenses—but execution not to issue thereon except by leave of the Court The judgment was not entered until the November following

In July 1868, Mercer appeared in Court and upon the motion of the U S and the counsel of Mercer the criminal action pending against him was continued until the November term

In December following Mercer appeared and submitted to trial on the charges in this indictment and the jury being unable to agree as to his guilt or innocence was discharged without giving a verdict and thereupon a nolle prosequi was entered as to Mercer

On July 6 1868 Mercer made application for the remission of the penalty incurred by his bail upon the grounds stated in his affidavit accompanying the application The application was continued by the Court to await the result of the criminal action This latter having been disposed of the application has been heard and submitted to the Court for its action

In his affidavit in support of his prayer for remission Mercer states that it was his intention to have been present to answer to the indictment in May 1868 when the second trial took place and had made his preparations accordingly but that he "was taken sick with the lung fever and rendered unable to undertake the journey from New York where I had been on business to this place (meaning Portland, I suppose) and that his absence as aforesaid was caused solely by his sickness and inability to attend as aforesaid

From this it appears that Mercer left Oregon and went to New York after his trial in November 1867, well knowing that his bail had undertaken that he should be here in May following when the action was set for re-trial To say the least of it this conduct looks as if Mercer was willing to put his bail to great unnecessary risk and that he regarded his obligation to be here present in Court in May as a matter altogether secondary to such business or speculations as he might have or find in New York In other words if business permitted he would return and be present if not then he would not No reason urgent or otherwise is shown for Mercer s going to New York instead of remaining here to await his trial Absence under such circumstances even where sickness is shown to be the proximate cause borders closely upon wilful default

But from the statement of Robert H Hannah M D Mercer appears to have been taken sick about April 21 This was only twelve days before he was required to be present in this court He could not have come here at that time in less than twenty days—certainly not in twelve So it may be inferred that Mercer did not intend to be present or he would have been far on the road by the time when it is said that he was taken sick in New York and thereby detained there against his will and purpose

The appearance of the paper purporting to be signed by Robert H Hannah M D is calculated to excite suspicion as to its authenticity It bears evident marks of having been changed from a simple certificate to an affidavit The body of it is in the handwriting of the person purporting to be Doctor Hannah It commences New York May 2?th 1868 This may certify that I Robert H Hannah a practicing physician in the city of New York was called upon to visit A S Mercer ... etc Just below the signature a five cent stamp is placed and duly cancelled by Dr Hannah on May 2?th 1868 After ... it appears that some one took the certificate in hand to make an affidavit of it For this purpose there was written at the top of the page in the left hand corner State of New York County and City of New York A line was then drawn through the words This may certify that A little farther on and between the words New York and was called a carat (∧) was placed and the words being duly sworn say that I interlined over it On the margin opposite this interlineation are the capital letters E T O N P apparently intended as the initials of Edward T Owen Notary Public whose official seal and signature appears below the writing attached to the following jurat Sworn to before me this 3d day of May 1868 All these interlineations and additions to the original certificate are in one hand writing The signature of the Notary is probably in the same hand but written with a different pen and ink The ... Notary is made to certify that he swore Robert H Hannah to this writing on May 3 ... while in the same writing Hannah states that he ... Mercer as late as May 2d

Hannah s signature appears from the date of ... and the stamp ... to have been made on May 2 while according to the jurat of this ... it was sworn to ... the ... twenty four days before The writing is made upon a sheet of letter paper and it is not likely that it was prepared ... for ... who would have ...

It may be said that Hannah may have first prepared it as his certificate and that afterwards ... for the Notary to swear to it This is possible but it is quite probable that upon such application the ... would have rewritten the matter rather than to have blotted and interlined the one in the manner ... It does not ... the ... of rewriting it ... and ... It is not ... like ... for a Notary to put his official seal and signature to an instrument having the ... appearance that this has ... at a great distance from where he resides

... the writing ... the Notary but ... might have ... picked up in the streets of New York and taken to ... Notary and sworn to the writing ... Robert H ...

The ... not ... the ... the ... of counsel who presented this application Notwithstanding this the paper has been submitted in support of the application, without any ... explanation from which I infer that no ... the authenticity ... made

... the default ... Mercer ... was not wilful ... the United States ... the trial ... I ... think that ... the affirmative ... the negative

... between the trials in May and December the ... I am aware of ... the ... of Mercer ... May ... case for the prosecution was weakened thereby Upon the trial ... parties ... trial were ... to the jury by the defense as a scape goat upon which they might safely lay the whole guilt of the transaction which was the subject of the indictment Delay is the usual defense of the guilty If nothing else happens by the lapse of time at least the accusation becomes stale and of less and less public concern Juries are not so readily or deeply affected by the moral turpitude of the transaction complained of and are more reluctant to convict even when the law and the evidence require that they should Honest witnesses forget many of the striking incidents and details of their story so that their evidence loses much of its original force and effect while dishonest and interested ones have the temptation and opportunity to exaggerate or invent circumstances to secure the acquittal of the accused

That causes like these have worked together to prevent Mercer being found guilty at the last trial upon some of the counts in the indictment there is much reason to believe

But the important question in this application arises under the words of the statute which in effect provides that although the default was not wilful and the United States was not prejudiced thereby in the trial of the cause still if the ends of public justice otherwise require that the penalty should be exacted or enforced, the court must not remit it

It appears to me from the evidence produced on the trial of this cause before the jury that the ends of public justice do require that the penalty should not be remitted The end and object of public justice is to convict and punish the guilty There can be no doubt that Mercer while acting as Deputy Collector of Customs for this district assisted some or all of the other defendants to smuggle the four barrels of wine and two of whisky into this district as charged in the indictment

On January 25 1867 the steamer Fidelitier entered at Astoria from Victoria On her manifest there were eleven barrels of dog fish oil shipped at Victoria, V I by S Sargent to S Sargent at Portland Oregon The manifest of cargo contained no mention of any liquors or of any other barrels except some barrels of salmon

Mercer with two inspectors came up on the Fidelitier to Portland While here, he professes to have received the entry for consumption of these eleven barrels of oil by H L Gowan and he certifies on such entry that H L Gowan came before him and subscribed and swore to the affidavit in the entry H L Gowan had no power or authority to make this entry He was not shown to have been the agent of the owner and consignee Sargent, and therefore Mercer is shown to have violated the law and instructions in receiving the entry or allowing Gowan to make it even if it was genuine This is a suspicious circumstance But I cannot go over the testimony in detail In my judgment H L Gowan" is a fiction, and no such person ever appeared before Mercer and made this entry or oath His certificate to that effect is wilfully and corruptly false The entry is false and was probably made by one of the defendants, who filled up the printed form of entry and signed it with the fictitious name of H L Gowan Diligent enquiry has been made in this and surrounding counties for the past eighteen months for such a man as H L Gowan but he has never been heard of or shown to have ever existed

Of these eleven barrels imported by the assistance of Mercer as dog fish oil, four contained wine and two whisky They were afterwards seized condemned and sold by the government These eleven barrels were inspected on the wharf under the immediate supervision and with the assistance of Mercer Two barrels which actually contained oil were selected for inspection one by the inspector with Mercer's consent and the other by himself The barrels when rolled on the wharf were placed on one side and the inspection of them was delayed until Mercer directed it to be done and took part in it Mercer had authority to inspect these barrels but it was not his duty, while the two inspectors were present He is not shown to have inspected or participated in the inspection of any other portion of the cargo His business was to receive the entries and collect the duties These barrels were hauled off the wharf soon after they were inspected under the direction of one of the defendants without any permit written or worded from the Deputy being exhibited or communicated to the inspectors

The fact that four barrels of wine and two of whisky were smuggled into the district in January 1867, is established beyond controversy by the decree condemning them as forfeited to the government for that cause The evidence shows that six barrels seized and condemned were a part of the eleven described in the entry purporting to have been made before Mercer by H L Gowan on January 28 1867 This alone proves the entry to have been untrue —that the barrels did not all contain oil But when we consider that the entry is in the handwriting of one of the defendants and that no such person as H L Gowan exists or made such entry the conclusion is irresistible that Mercer willfully and corruptly assisted to smuggle these foreign liquors into the district.

The statute defining this crime Sec 12 Act of ... fixes the maximum punishment at a fine of $5 000 and ten years of imprisonment This penalty sought to be remitted is far below the maximum punishment The crime committed by Mercer is an aggravated one because at the time he was in the pay and trust of the government as an officer of the customs for the purpose of preventing just such frauds upon the government

The application for the remission is denied

The Question of the Hour

[illegible] has been pursued with [illegible] Andrew Johnson [illegible] suggest that [illegible] neighbors [illegible] them [illegible] friends [illegible] useful and important [illegible] their [illegible] review [illegible] reference [illegible] Courts [illegible] letter of acceptance [illegible] question [illegible] that so sorely perplexes them It is astonishing that our neighbors in their anxious inquiry have not gone to this [illegible] original sources of information In the letter of acceptance Grant says The proceedings of the Convention I believe express the feelings of the great mass of those who sustained the country during its recent trials I endorse the resolutions Here is the very mine for anxious Democrats to work As Grant endorses the resolutions of the Chicago Convention and will carry out in his administration of affairs the policy therein indicated [illegible] the resolutions are the very [illegible] which our neighbors should go for the information they seek And the sooner they give up the idea that Grant is going to pursue the policy which Seymour would have followed had he been elected the sooner their feeling of uncertainty and distraction will come to an end Certainly it is ludicrous to see every Democrat from Belmont to Nasby in the depths of dolorous doubt and to hear them all chiming in with one voice to demand of Grant what he is going to do

How it Came About —The Herald complains that about 100 000 of the citizens of Missouri are disfranchised. We know that a considerable number of persons in that State are disfranchised but nothing like 100 000 unless the negroes are counted Their disfranchisement happened in this way Being firm believers in the time-honored principles of Democracy they took up arms under Claib Jackson and Pap Price to carry Missouri out of the Union. After they had raided through the State for some time the loyal Missourians, assisted by the boys from Illinois and Iowa made old Missouri too hot to hold them. They therefore went South with Price and other leaders in search of their "rights" as Democratic citizens They continued in this pursuit of which Pea Ridge and Corinth were episodes for three years when they surrendered and started for home But in the meantime the loyal citizens of Missouri, not admiring the conduct of their Democratic patriots, had adopted an amendment to the Constitution of their State to prohibit the returning prodigals from voting and when the said prodigals got back home they found the door closed in their faces, and that nobody knew them This is the history of the case of the good Democrats of Missouri whose disfranchisement the Herald bewails But some of these fellows got to Oregon where they vote the Democratic ticket in every election with great enthusiasm

Practical Questions —Some of the opposition journals are again devoting their talents to the tariff, and denouncing the doctrine of protection in unmeasured terms Here are a few practical questions from a New York paper, which we address to the Democratic press of Oregon. "As the Chinese can be [illegible] successfully in manufacturing, with the high wages we have to pay them in this country, how will it be in China which has the cheapest labor in the world and the most of it,—and where, on the diet of fish and rice, eight-hour laws, strikes and trade-unions are not known ? What sort of competition with such a people, so situated known to be intelligent, industrious, quick to learn exceedingly skillful in the use of their fingers and their wits, and frugal beyond any others in the world,—what sort of competition can be maintained with them by the cotton, woolen and iron manufactories of England and the United States,—where labor is comparatively scarce, wages are high and the habits of the working classes infinitely less thrifty and laborious? What is there in the nature of the case to prevent China,—if all protective laws are to be abandoned and the world thrown open to free trade —from doing the work and producing all the manufactures which the world requires?"

The Whisky Tax.—The new law taxing whisky is probably better executed than the old one levying two dollars per gallon chiefly because there is less temptation to fraud but it is evidently evaded to a great extent The tax is fifty cents per proof gallon, or including the levies for license and grain fermented about sixty-three cents per gallon Grain costs thirty-seven or eight cents for each gallon of proof spirits and labor rent and interest from six to ten cents per gallon The total cost to an honest manufacturer must be from one dollar and five cents to one dollar and ten cents and whisky ought to sell at from one dollar and twelve cents to one dollar and twenty cents or thereabouts But it can be bought in New York at from ninety cents to one dollar [illegible] but a fraction of the article pays a tax Perhaps all dealers pay a tax upon a portion of their product but if there be a dealer who is paying it faithfully for every gallon he makes he is working for the benefit of the revenue for his dividend must be on the minus side An improved law a new President, and a clearing out of Perry Fullers Shooks Steedmans and all that race of Johnson parasites will better things a little

The Cost of Indian Wars —A H Jackson of New York City has published a work in which he gives [illegible] statement of the causes and cost of the several Indian wars during the last thirty [illegible] years The Black Hawk war cost [illegible] $5 000 000 [illegible] the Florida war [illegible] the [illegible] war in 1852 [illegible] 1864 the Cheyenne [illegible] other difficulty with the Sioux [illegible] to war against the Cheyennes which has [illegible] 000 000 [illegible] is not settled yet The cost of Indian war [illegible] the Pacific Coast is put at [illegible]

The Great Hamilton —The Librarian of Congress has [illegible] the rotunda of the Capitol at Washington a statue of Alexander Hamilton heroic size executed in Italy by Horatio Stone under an order of Congress

The Test of Democracy

The editor of the Yamhill [illegible] sharp knock over the shoulders in the following letter which is addressed to [illegible] nant Democrat

AMITY Oregon Dec 9 1868

J W Johnson Editor of the Weekly [illegible] — Dear Sir I ask of you to erase my name from your subscription list—send your bill to your authorized agent of this place and no longer consider me a patron of yours or any [illegible] of their rat [illegible] who stands on his war [illegible] Whenever I desire a paper that [illegible] the merits of the war as prosecuted [illegible] the Government I will subscribe for a Republican Abolition paper at once If the Democratic party is a war party it never was during the rebellion I have been and am yet [illegible] and I have been in the ranks all the time and as you were not I think I ought to understand this matter perfectly What the editor of the Herald has editorialized is true whether you accept it or not and so I can tell you Democrats are getting tired of swallowing sugar-coated political nostrums as prescribed by political quacks who basely abandoned the party [illegible] hour of adversity The war is over the battles are won If the championship on war merits is due any party or hero it has been justly awarded by the American people in the last Presidential election and that was by the election of Grant The course you propose to steer the Democracy is in [illegible] of what they have and I feel unless they propose to become snivelling time servers Honor to whom honor is due Mohammed may go to the mountain but the mountain will never go to him So it is with war Democrats They may go to the Democratic party but it will never go to them Better go to the Republican party or some other place than to concede to such snivelling terms

Yours, in haste, L T V B EMBREE

The Portland Commercial also fillips the offending Courier,—styling Embree s letter a well merited rebuke The offense of the Yamhill editor consists in the fact that he was a Union man during the war and [illegible] in fighting the rebellion [illegible] But is [illegible] great body of the party he now [illegible] with were secessionists and ardently desired the success of the rebellion they will not listen for a moment to any so-called Democrat who stands on his war record Three-fourths of the Democratic party will agree with Embree and the Commercial and the Herald, that the rebels were right and the Government wrong We hope the editor of the Courier and all other war Democrats now understand that no man can be a bed rock Democrat and have full fellowship with the party who was not an active rebel or a sympathizing secessionist during the rebellion

Southern Claims —In a Chicago paper of the 1st inst we find a dispatch from Washington which states that claims for damages done by our armies in the South are already filed to the amount of a thousand million dollars Since the election of Grant the business is growing weaker These are the claims which the Southern Democracy expected would be paid in accordance with the promise of the New York Convention to Wade Hampton after the inauguration of Seymour and Blair It is desirable that these claimants should bring along all their little bills and file them right away. The larger the claims the less chance there will be of ever robbing the Treasury to pay them We hope therefore that every reconstructed Democrat in the South will fetch on his claims Let them present their bills for the loss of their slaves and for all the damages they sustained while engaged in the innocent business of waging war against the government and trying to break up the Union Let them present their Confederate bonds for consolidation with the national debt, and their grayback currency for redemption There should be no claim held back let the people have the satisfaction of seeing how much loss the Southern Democracy admit to have suffered in consequence of their treason and rebellion, and how much they expected their Northern brethren would pay them

Cabinet Making —The Unionist has a new accusation against the OREGONIAN Some days ago we said "For our part we want a Cabinet officer from the Pacific coast if a man can be found here who will, on the whole, be satisfactory to the country and add strength to Gen Grant s Administration and not otherwise To this doctrine the Unionist objects and thinks Oregon is entitled to a member of the Cabinet whether there is a man here whom Gen Grant and the country at large want or not Now we have some able men in Oregon, and should be glad to see Gen Grant select some one of them for a Cabinet position , but the idea of any State claiming a thing of this sort is absurd and ridiculous Those who know anything of Gen Grant rather incline to the opinion that he will make his own Cabinet If Gen Grant should select one of the members from Oregon,—at which we should rejoice as much as any citizen of the State —we venture to assert that that member would not be a person in the interest of the mercenary brigade and of J W Nesmith therefore the Unionist could have little interest in the appointment

The Indian Campaign —From St Louis papers we gather details of the winter campaign which has been projected against the Indians of the plains and which is now in progress It is a very imposing affair At least 5 000 troops are engaged in it They are divided into eight bodies the whole under command of General Sheridan and are moving simultaneously from the east north and west of the location of the hostile Indians and will cover the country and force the savages toward the western portion of the Indian territory or the region intersected by the 35th parallel of latitude and 105th meridian It is expected that the converging columns will thus be able to compel the Indians to surrender and be placed on reservations or will chastise them into peace The hostile warriors number between three and four thousand and will hardly be able to resist the forces now being sent against them They have never known Uncle Sam before to take the war path with the winter coming on

Morton s Financial Views —Senator Morton of Indiana the author of the bill now before the Senate to provide for the resumption of specie payments says that he is in favor of the redemption of the legal tenders as soon as feasible and believes that by fixing the time he fixed for the purpose (July 1 1871) greenbacks will be worth their face on a gold basis Greenbacks he believes should be elevated to their full value in gold before they are used for paying the debt All the parts of his scheme are dependent [illegible] principles

Methodist Statistics —The Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States [illegible] statistics of which for the present year are about completed show a total membership of 1 [illegible] 071 Increase since 1867 109 [illegible] The Methodist Church South has a membership of [illegible] 3 040 an increase since last year of [illegible] 9 139

The Franking Privilege —A bill has been introduced in Congress to abolish this privilege We devoutly hope it will pass It will relieve the mails of a great burden and increase the postal revenues A special privilege it should be cut off

CHARITY.—A large class of people [illegible] to be virtuous on many occasions forget that to be charitable is not the least virtue a person can possess It is not always by giving money to the poor or assisting the afflicted that a person can only show their charity A good advice is often better than money; for instance Meeting a person who wishes to purchase a common or fine suit of clothes or any other article in the Clothing or Dry Goods line is it not a charitable act toward that person to recommend them to go to Kohn & Fishel and being certain that at that House they can purchase at the lowest rates and receive good goods, and where the most particular can be satisfied?

San Francisco [illegible]

New York [illegible]

The Oldest Newspaper on this Coast —A correspondent of the San Francisco Examiner writes What[illegible] the contrary we assert that the [illegible] the first newspaper in the English language [illegible] belongs to Robert Semple [illegible] The first issue was [illegible] on the Ramage Press [illegible] called, and was [illegible] used for the public [illegible] when this country was under Mexican rule [illegible] a week or two since we had in our [illegible] copy of the first number issued by Dr Semple [illegible] July 1846, and its dimensions [illegible] the date [illegible] of a half sheet of ordinary letter paper [illegible] at that. It also [illegible] of James K. Polk, then [illegible] Semple s prospectus, and a brief paragraph [illegible] stating that though the paper was small that it would be enlarged when new material could be obtained It was published at Monterey At a subsequent period Semple moved his publication office to San Francisco but we shall speak of the Press as early day [illegible] commercial Metropolis of California, at some other time

To which the Oregon City Enterprise replies "We dislike to have [illegible] statements disputed, but when we make an error we take great pleasure in correcting it when shown [illegible] We have often [illegible] that the honor of publishing the first newspaper in the English language on the Pacific Coast, belongs to Mr John Fleming. [illegible] Whatever others may say to the contrary it is nevertheless a fact that the [illegible] the Oregon Spectator was commenced in this city in February 1846 some five months, at least, [illegible] the issue of Dr Semple s paper at Monterey [illegible] printed upon one of Hoe s [illegible] The press [illegible] was nearly half that of the [illegible] type, ink, paper etc was brought from New York upon the order of Geo Abernethy Esq the first [illegible] Governor of Oregon [illegible] brought the [illegible] General Jackson [illegible] and that the "54° 40' or fight" boundary [illegible] between the American and [illegible] governments had been settled We thus contest the claim set up by the Examiner and [illegible] that the [illegible] make the proper record of the facts "

An Attractive Exhibition —A [illegible] of very large and fat hogs were on exhibition [illegible] day at Mr Lee[illegible] market, corner of [illegible] and First [illegible] a large crowd [illegible] and there was scarcely [illegible] when the lookers-on [illegible] the sidewalk was [illegible] One of the hogs [illegible] 1,400 [illegible] the other a couple of hundreds less. Mr [illegible] also had on exhibition a very fat [illegible] two hundred and seventy-five [illegible] Mr L. sold that sheep [illegible] of this city for $1 50. It was then the "runt" of the whole band The man has kept it as a sort of pet until it has grown to almost [illegible] and now he has sold it to Mr L. for $30.

The River and the Boats.—Up to the [illegible] the river had been rising, but it is now slightly [illegible] The stage of water however, is just [illegible] right for [illegible] The Corvallis Gazette says "On [illegible] last the Active Capt. E. Miller, and the [illegible] Capt. Cochrane, arrived at our [illegible] The former was bound for [illegible] City. The latter, after discharging [illegible] There are the largest boats on the river [illegible] there will be no more [illegible] boats for awhile, at least "

[illegible] OF THE BARK [illegible] list of the consignees of the [illegible] with [illegible] of packages to each D [illegible] M 301, F & Co, 582; [illegible] Wm Young 2 slabs marble, F & Co, [illegible] Salem, 29, [illegible] Smith & Davis, 282, [illegible] 10, 26, H C & Co, 25, [illegible] 25 [illegible] H W C [illegible] Ladd & Tilton, 5, [illegible] H W Corbett, 5, [illegible] Ladd, 10 packages

Public Survey —Mr Morris, the County Surveyor, is now engaged upon surveying and marking the [illegible] of Capt. Couch s land claim, with a view of ascertaining the original line as [illegible] in 1846 and the corrected survey of 1862, approved by the [illegible] in January 1863. The [illegible] have been sold with [illegible] the old survey The [illegible] is that part of the city [illegible] that the proper lines should be [illegible] Mr Morris.

No Time to Lose.—The [illegible] and the air [illegible] we are reminded of the [illegible] of this cold snap and the [illegible] of the ice [illegible] Corvallis Gazette [illegible] hurry up that [illegible] may not be [illegible] Really, as the Gazette has so well said, "there is no time to lose."

A Relic —Mr Post, of Astoria, has [illegible] a cane [illegible] from one of the [illegible] of the old Shark [illegible] or more [illegible] near Astoria. The [illegible] has been [illegible] copper [illegible] The cane is [illegible] [illegible] the [illegible] of age [illegible] as a relic.

The Case of the Negro Burglar —The [illegible] of James Hudson the negro who was [illegible] last Friday night in Meier's store, was postponed in the [illegible] Court yesterday till to-day It is thought that he is insane and it is probable that steps will be taken to have him sent to the Asylum

For the Asylum —Deputy Sheriff [illegible] of Marion county arrived down last evening with an [illegible] man named Robinson Hoover, and delivered him to the keeper of the Asylum [illegible] has been insane since last June He is quite old—probably not less than sixty years

A Fine Day Yesterday the weather was bright and beautiful and for good behavior we have put down a long chalk mark to the credit of the clerk of the weather The wind however came out of the North, and the air was rather uncomfortably cool with [illegible]

Beware of Him —We are [illegible] by a couple of gentlemen who say they know the facts, that there is in the city a man begging for money [illegible] He has deceived many elsewhere, and it will be well enough if our people keep a sharp look out for him.

From Victoria —A telegraphic [illegible] from Victoria, yesterday announces that the [illegible] and Oriflamme arrived at that port on Sunday, and that the latter would probably sail for Portland this morning She ought to be here Wednesday night

ANNUAL GRAND OPENING

BUDGET!

BOOK STORE!
WHERE MY
HEAD-QUARTERS!
HAVE BEEN ESTABLISHED
For the past Seven Years,
AND WHERE
I WILL HOLD MY ANNUAL CARNIVAL
DURING THE COMING FESTIVAL
THAT ALL MAY OBSERVE
The Christmas and New Year's HOLIDAYS!
I herewith issue my Annual

PROCLAMATION!!!

Dear Parents and Children once more I appear
And wish you good Christmas and Happy New Year!
I've brought you gifts [illegible] I've opened [illegible]
My Budget of Wonders—at McCormick's Book Store!
I've spread out my treasures so give me a call
And view the nice GIFTS I've procured for you all
My Presents this year were conveyed to the tow
By Mercer's new clipper the swift Sallie Brown
The stock's most complete The assortment comprises
Curiosities rare of all shapes and all sizes
I've Dollies that talk I've babies that dance
Some very handsome I purchased in France)
I've Fish that can swim I've Roosters who strive
To crow so like nature you'd think they're alive
I've Guns and I've Cannon—I've neat Savings Banks
And Soldiers that look very neat when in ranks
I've Puzzles and Pistols Then Christmas to keep
I've Candles Reflectors and Brackets—a heap
I've beautiful Baskets a nice gift for Ma)
And handsome Cigar Stands just suited for Pa
While there's nothing so welcome to uncle or aunt
As a beautiful portrait of President Grant
I've Work Boxes—handsome as ever were made—
With ladies' utensils all nicely arrayed.
I've nice setts of China—I've Vases of Flowers
And Musical Boxes that play at all hours
I've Furniture, Villages, Steamboats and Blocks,
That gay little joker called Jack in-the-Box!
I've Tables, and Dressers for China or doll,
I've nice Solitaire, that you play by yourself!
I've new Magic Lanterns—a beautiful sight
To make all good children merry at night.
For girls at school I've a nice Skipping Rope,
And for family fun I've the new Zoetrope!
I've Games that instruct, and Books that amuse,
For Gifts to good people I never refuse.
In fine I've got all that each heart could desire,
To name them all over your patience I'd tire,
But call on me early or call on me late,
I'll visit your houses all over this State—
In Washington's clime—up in young Idaho—
I'm sure to find children wherever I go
I've travelled for years—you all must remember
I'll be Sixty nine at the end of December
My hair is all white and my body doth tend
To the latest sensation—the new Grecian bend!
On Christmas-Eve night as in bed you all sleep,
With pack on my back down each chimney I'll creep
I'll lay out my Presents but oh 'twill be shocking
Should I find a hole in any one's stocking
So for HOLIDAY GOODS—for Dolls sweet as honey
Go to McCORMICK'S—you'll save half your money
Nice Presents or Gifts—any kind you require
You'll find at the FRANKLIN —(the number enquire)
On FRONT STREET Near Alder—105,
In fact you can't miss it—and when you arrive,
Don't ask goods at cost for you'll find if you try
That goods sold at cost always cost very high!
But to purchasers all this maxim I'd give
Free well yourself and thus let others live

The undersigned who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions the sale of which daily increases The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise which commands here and in the markets of the interior a relatively higher price excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who by counterfeit or imitation of his mark seek to deceive the public palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeit Nevertheless buyers should be forewarned and placed on their guard against this practice

Odds and Ends

Chicago spends over $2,000,000 a year on billiards.

Chicago has 'trotting matinees' instead of horse races

Chicago has a pane of glass seven and a half by fifteen feet.

An impecunious bridegroom in New Haven requested the officiating divine to charge the expenses.

The ubiquitous Jenkins, says Mrs. Colfax is just thirty-two, and weighs one hundred and forty pounds

General J W Smith of the Memphis District, will contest the election of [illegible] the Democratic Congressman elect. He has procured five hundred affidavits, affirming that as many illegal votes were cast against him

The editor of the Louisville Democrat, in his valedictory, says " The worst sin I have on my conscience is helping to make great men out of very small material " He is not the only one of the fraternity who has done something in the same line

The new suspension bridge across the Hudson will have a clear span of 1,600 feet, the longest yet built upon the continent The twenty cables will contain seventy thousand miles of steel wire The bridge will be capable of carrying at one time 32 passenger cars

As illustrative of Rossini's laziness and genius it is related that he used to compose in bed, and that once, when a fine duet that he was writing and had almost finished, slipped off the bed and beyond his reach, rather than get up for it, he took another sheet and composed another duet entirely different from the first.

Chemistry, in answer to the old question " How did the world begin?" says that it grew from the thin air we breathe! It certainly shows that the most solid parts of the earth can be turned into liquids and gases that the surface coating of the globe is composed of oxygen—and that the gases can be turned into liquids first, and then into solids.

A Paris paper gives a conversation between a father and his little daughter

" What have you done with your doll?"

" I have put it away, to keep for my children when I grow up!"

" But if you shouldn't have any?"

" Ah! well, then, it would do for my grandchildren."

A BABY'S SOLILOQUY.—I am here And if this is what they call the world, I don't think much of it. It's a very flannelly world, and smells of pa[illegible] awfully. It's a dreadful light world, too, and makes me blink, I tell you And I don't know what to do with my hands; I think I'll put my fists in my eyes. No, I won't. I'll scratch at the corner of my blanket and chew it up, and then I'll holler; whatever happens, I'll holler And the more paregoric they give me, the louder I'll yell. That old nurse puts the spoon in the corner of my mouth in a very uneasy way, and keeps tasting my milk herself all the while. She spilled snuff in it last night, and when I hollered she trotted me. That comes of being a two days' old baby. Never mind, when I'm a man I'll pay her back good. There's a pin sticking in me now, and if I say a word about it I'll be trotted or fed, and I would rather have catnip tea. I'll tell you who I am. I found out to-day. I heard folks say, "Hush, don't wake up Emeline's baby," and I suppose that pretty, white-faced woman over on the pillow is Emeline.

No, I was mistaken, for a chap was in here just now, and wanted to see Bob's baby, and looked at me, and said I was a "funny little toad and looked just like Bob." He smelt of cigars and I'm not used to them. I wonder who else I belong to. Yes, there's another one—that's "Gamma," [illegible] told me, and she took me up, and held me against her soft cheek, and said, "It was Gamma's baby, so I was." I declare I do not know who I belong to; but I'll holler, and maybe I'll find out.

[illegible] Snuffy with catnip tea. The idea of giving [illegible] this catnip tea when they are crying for information! I'm going to sleep. I wonder if I don't look pretty red in the face. I wonder why my hands won't go where I want them to.

IDOL WORSHIP IN SAN FRANCISCO.—When the Chinese living in San Francisco first made public their purpose to erect a Budhist temple in that city, there occurred a very lively discussion in the newspapers regarding what was [illegible] to be the danger of permitting the [illegible] of idol worship as a recognized institution in a Christian community, and some of the writers strongly urged legislative interference in the matter It was argued that the bare fact of the existence of an organized system of idolatry in this country would be prejudicial, at least, to the interests of civilization, and perhaps regarded by other civilized nations as evidence of our failure to maintain the principles of religious freedom without risking the engraftment of heathenism upon our varied stock of religious theories. But public opinion did not respond to the alarm, and "John Chinaman" proceeded to build his "joss house" and make his offerings of pork and poultry before graven images of wood, and stone, and curiosity-seeking Ch[illegible] crowded the temple on high days and holid[illegible] to witness the novelty of pagan wor[illegible]

It [illegible] not appear [illegible] the huge wooden mo[illegible] exhibited in the temple has had any demoralizing influence upon Christian society in San Francisco, at least no instance of a conversion from Christianity to Paganism has been chronicled. And perhaps public sentiment is correct in refusing to accord sympathy with fears of those persons who believe they see in the Chinese enterprise at San Francisco a plot to heathenize this country.

MONEY ORDER SWINDLE IN ENGLAND —The London correspondent of the New York Herald gives the following account of a swindle which has been successfully practiced in that country recently The other day one of the post-office detectives sent for me and informed me that he had discovered a new money order swindle which may possibly be attempted in the United States The perpetrator, who is in custody, pretends to be a foreigner, has half a dozen aliases, and has made a comfortable livelihood for a long time out of his invention His plan was to purchase a post-office order for a small sum, and having obtained the order, he would go to the place where it was made payable, ascertain the time for closing the mails &c, and then commence operations by running up a little bill at the hotel Then by means of some chemical preparation he would remove all the writing from his post office order fill up the blanks with a large sum, wait till the post [illegible] induce his landlord to cash the order—which seemed perfectly genuine—and then leave by the next train He was arrested by mere accident at Aylesbury, and brought up to London He claims to be a French officer, formerly belonging to the hussars He is evidently an old offender, and so keen and so [illegible] of foot that extraordinary precautions are taken to prevent his escape The detectives have not as yet learned what process he uses to extract the original writing from the money orders, but it is easy to see that his process will be available for many criminal feats unless it can be detected and counteracted.

There are over 100 cases of small pox now in the Potrero Hospital, San Francisco, and the nurses are calling on the public for rags Mentioning this fact and the increase of the epidemic the Call asks " Cannot human wisdom or wit devise some means to stop this rapid march of Death? Are there no men of science skill reason or common sense in the city? Must the lives of the people be sacrificed to the jealousies, spites, envies pride of intellect and judgment of professional men and others?"

John Eng[illegible] of Howell Prairie Marion county Oregon writes
